Worship Service

Enter with reverence, Worship in truth, Serve Christ with gladness.

Meditation

Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Psalm 32:1-6

The congregation will read text in italics.

¹ Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

² Blessed is the man to whom the LORD does not impute iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

³ When I kept silent, my bones grew old through my groaning all the day long.

⁴ For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me; my vitality was turned into the drought of summer.

⁵ I acknowledged my sin to You, and my iniquity I have not hidden. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD," and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah

⁶ For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to You in a time when You may be found; surely in a flood of great waters they shall not come near him.

Not What These Hands Have Done

St Thomas

Text: Horatius Bonar (1864)

Tune: Aaron Williams 1731-76 ("Come, We That Love the Lord")

Not what these hands have done
Can save this guilty soul;
Not what this toiling flesh has borne
Can make my spirit whole.

Not what I feel or do
Can give me peace with God;
Not all my prayers and sighs and tears
Can bear my awful load.

Thy grace alone, O God,
To me can pardon speak;
Thy power alone, O Son of God,
Can this sore bondage break.

No other work save Thine,
No lesser death will do;
No strength, save that which is divine,
Can bear me safely through.

I bless the Christ of God;
I rest on love divine;
And with unfaltering lip and heart
I call this Savior mine!
