The congregation will read text in italics.

¹² Are You not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One?
We shall not die. O LORD, You have appointed them for judgment;
O Rock, You have marked them for correction.

¹³ You are of purer eyes than to behold evil, and cannot look on wickedness. Why do You look on those who deal treacherously, And hold Your tongue when the wicked devours A person more righteous than he? .

¹ I will stand my watch and set myself on the rampart, and watch to see what He will say to me, and what I will answer when I am corrected.

² Then the LORD answered me and said: "Write the vision and make it plain on tablets, that he may run who reads it.

³ For the vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it tarries, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

⁴ "Behold the proud, his soul is not upright in him; but the just shall live by his faith."

How Shall We Then Live? Part 6—Hebrews 10:19-36

Greg Stiekas, Pastor

The central message of Hebrews is that Jesus Christ became our great High Priest, entering into the holy presence of the Father by means of His single sacrifice for our sins, making operational the New Covenant blessings which offer forgiveness and reconciliation with God. Beginning in 10:19, however, the author begins to explain what Jesus' priestly work means for us as believers in practical terms. Essentially, the author answers the question, "How shall we then live?"

1. We shall live a life of obedience (10:22-25).
 - A. "Let us" draw near to God (22).
 - B. "Let us" hold fast our confession (23).
 - C. "Let us" encourage one another (24-25).
2. We shall live a life of sobriety (10:26-31).
 - A. Because of the sobering exclusivity of the gospel.
 - B. Because of the sobering problem of sin.
 - C. Because of the sobering reality of the Judgment.
3. We shall live a life of endurance (10:32-36).
