

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
you who lead Joseph like a flock.
You who are enthroned upon the cherubim, shine forth. Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might and come to save us! Psalm 80:1-2

† Congregational Reading

The congregation will read text in italics.

To you, O LORD, I call;

my rock, be not deaf to me,

lest, if you be silent to me,

I become like those who go down to the pit.

Psalm 28

² Hear the voice of my pleas for mercy,

when I cry to you for help,

when I lift up my hands

toward your most holy sanctuary.

³ Do not drag me off with the wicked,

with the workers of evil,

who speak peace with their neighbors

while evil is in their hearts.

⁴ Give to them according to their work

and according to the evil of their deeds;

give to them according to the work of their hands;

render them their due reward.

⁵ Because they do not regard the works of the LORD
or the work of his hands,
he will tear them down and build them up no more.

⁶ Blessed be the LORD!

For he has heard the voice of my pleas for mercy.

⁷ The LORD is my strength and my shield;

in him my heart trusts, and I am helped;

my heart exults,

and with my song I give thanks to him.

⁸ The LORD is the strength of his people;

he is the saving refuge of his anointed.

⁹ Oh, save your people and bless your heritage!

Be their shepherd and carry them forever.

"Resting in God's Care"

Psalm 23

Zach Sparkman

Psalm 23 is one of the most familiar and well-loved passages of Scripture. In it we read of God being a wonderful Shepherd and Benefactor to his people. Yet, if we are honest, we still look to ourselves to fix our own problems and calm our own fears. And so, worry and frustration crowds our souls when we look to ourselves to provide for our own needs. Psalm 23 simply reveals that God alone is the Provider of your needs, so you must completely rest in His care.

- II. God is your loving Benefactor (5-6)
 - A. God provides bountiful blessings (5)
 - B. God provides spiritual blessings (6)
