[†]Congregational Reading Isaiah 25:4-9
The congregation will read text in italics.

⁴ For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat; for the breath of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall, ⁵ like heat in a dry place.

You subdue the noise of the foreigners; as heat by the shade of a cloud, so the song of the ruthless is put down.

⁶ On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined.

⁷ And he will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations.

⁸ He will swallow up death forever; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken.

⁹ It will be said on that day, "Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

[†] Doxology Traditional to Regent Square

Laud and honor to the Father;
Laud and honor to the Son;
Laud and honor to the Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One;
One in might, and One in glory,
While unending ages run. Amen.

Jesus' death for our sins was not merely a 'great' sacrifice, it was 'perfect.' That is, it absolutely completed all that was necessary for our salvation. In this text, the perfection of Jesus' sacrifice is seen in at least five ways:

1. Jesus' sacrifice was offered in a heavenly place (23-24).
2. Jesus' sacrifice opened eternal access to the Father (24).
 - a. Jesus' appearance is contemporary: 'now' to appear
 - b. Jesus appearance is intercessory: 'for us'
3. Jesus' sacrifice was needed only once (25-26).

To Our Guests: We welcome you to Bethany Bible Church! We trust you will sense our desire to exalt the Lord in our worship, as well as our commitment to the sufficiency of the Scriptures. You and your entire family are invited to worship with us. A nursery is provided for ages 0-3 if you would like, and you may also hear the service in the foyer or fellowship room if you need to attend to small children. We would like to have a record of your visit. You should receive a guest card which you may give to Pastor Stiekes personally or hand to one of our ushers. 22. Q. What is the sinfulness of man's condition resulting from the fall?
 A. The sinfulness of man's condition resulting from the fall is the guilt of Adam's first sin, the lack of original righteousness, and the corruption of his whole nature, commonly called original sin, as well as all the actual sins which come from it.

4. Jesus' sacrifice was the culmination of the ages (26).
