¹ The Mighty One, God the LORD, has spoken and called the earth from the rising of the sun to its going down.

² Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God will shine forth.

³ Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent; a fire shall devour before Him, and it shall be very tempestuous all around Him.

⁴ He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that He may judge His people:

⁵ "Gather My saints together to Me, those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice."

⁶ Let the heavens declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge.

How Shall We Then Live? Part 2—Hebrews 10:19-36

Greg Stiekes, Pastor

The central message of Hebrews is that Jesus Christ became our great High Priest, entering into the holy presence of the Father by means of His single sacrifice for our sins, making operational the New Covenant blessings which offer forgiveness and reconciliation with God. Beginning in 10:19, however, the author begins to explain what Jesus’ priestly work means for us as believers in practical terms. Essentially, the author answers the question, “How shall we then live?”

1. We shall live a life of obedience (10:22-25).
 - A. “Let us” draw near to God (22).
 - B. “Let us” hold fast our confession (23).
 - C. “Let us” encourage one another (24-25).

- Next:*
2. We shall live a life of solemnity (10:26-31).
 3. We shall live a life of endurance (10:32-36).

32. Q. Of what does Christ's exaltation consist?
 - A. Christ's exaltation consists in his rising again from the dead on the third day, in ascending up into heaven, sitting at the right hand of God the Father, and in coming again to reign over and judge the world at the last day.
