BLESS THE LORD, O MY SOUL!

O LORD my God, You are very great:
You are clothed with honor and majesty,
Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment,
Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain.

Psalm 104:1-2

MEDITATION

Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. Philippians 2:12-13

¹ Praise the LORD! Blessed is the man who fears the LORD, who delights greatly in His commandments.

² His descendants will be mighty on earth; the generation of the upright will be blessed.

³ Wealth and riches will be in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.

⁴ Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness; He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

⁵ A good man deals graciously and lends; he will guide his affairs with discretion.

⁶ Surely he will never be shaken; the righteous will be in everlasting remembrance.

⁷ He will not be afraid of evil tidings; his heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD.

⁸ His heart is established; he will not be afraid, until he sees his desire upon his enemies.

⁹ He has dispersed abroad, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever; his horn will be exalted with honor.

¹⁰ The wicked will see it and be grieved; he will gnash his teeth and melt away; the desire of the wicked shall perish.

How Shall We Then Live? Part 7—Hebrews 10:19-36

Greg Stiekas, Pastor

The central message of Hebrews is that Jesus Christ became our great High Priest, entering into the holy presence of the Father by means of His single sacrifice for our sins, making operational the New Covenant blessings which offer forgiveness and reconciliation with God. Beginning in 10:19, however, the author begins to explain what Jesus' priestly work means for us as believers in practical terms. Essentially, the author answers the question, "How shall we then live?"

1. We shall live a life of obedience (10:22-25).
2. We shall live a life of sobriety (10:26-31).
3. We shall live a life of endurance (10:32-36).
 - a. Past endurance is not a guarantee of future salvation.
 - b. Faithful endurance is the only sign of future salvation.
 - c. Faithful endurance is a matter of genuine faith.
