John 6: 28-40

The congregation will read text in italics.

²⁸Then they said to him, "What must we do, to be doing the works of God?" ²⁹Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

³⁰So they said to him, "Then what sign do you do, that we may see and believe you? What work do you perform?" ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

³²Jesus then said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

³⁴They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always."

³⁵Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. ³⁶But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe.

³⁷All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out.

³⁸For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. ³⁹And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day.

⁴⁰For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day."

"Christ's Judgment Call"

Matthew 7: 21-23

Pastor John Bott

In Matthew 7:21, Christ makes a shocking statement as to whether or not certain people are going to go to Heaven: Not everyone who thinks they are going to Heaven really is. This passage speaks to us about the most critical moment in eternity for all of us...the instant in time when we find out whether He will receive us or reject us; whether we will spend eternity in Heaven or Hell. It tells us that people are entering into eternity deceived about their true spiritual condition. Many find out their true standing before God on that future day, but God wants you to know it now. Because your eternity is at stake, you must make sure that you possess eternal life!

I. Christ gives a warning about that future day. Matt. 7:21

II. Christ opens a window into that future day. Matt. 7:22-23

A. The Sovereign Judge (James 4:12; Acts 17:30-31; John 5:22)

B. The surprised subjects

C. The saddest words ever heard

III. Christ tells us the only way to be secure on that future day. Matt. 7:21

To our guests: Welcome to Bethany Bible Church! We trust that you will sense our love for the Lord and our desire to sincerely worship Him and magnify His Word. You and your entire family are invited to worship with us. If you desire, a nursery is provided for children ages 0–3, and the service is simulcast in our large Sunday School room down the hall if you need to attend to young children. We would love to have a record of your visit. Please find a guest card, located in the backs of the pews, which you can fill out and place in the offering plate or hand to an usher or the pastor. Thank you! We trust that God will richly bless you as we endeavor to magnify the Lord on His day.

KIDS4TRUTH Q&A AND MEMORY VERSE FOR NEXT WEEK

Q. If the LORD is totally in control, but He still lets sin go on, does that mean He must sometimes approve of sin?

A . No. The LORD never approves of sin. He hates all sin, all the time. Psalm 92:15b --He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him. (1104)
